Madison—State Senator Tom Tiffany (R-Hazelhurst) will be holding joint listening sessions for constituents on September 28th, 29th, and October 1st with state Representatives Mary Czaja (R-Irma), Rob Swearingen (R-Rhineland), and Jeff Mursau (R-Crivity).

“This is going to be a great opportunity to hear what constituents from throughout the district have to say about legislative issues and the recently passed state budget,” said Tiffany. “I am looking forward to talking with the people of the Northwoods about the upcoming legislative session.”

“I am very pleased to host listening sessions within Vilas, Oneida, and Florence Counties at the end of September,” added Rep. Swearingen. “Our past listening sessions have proven to be very effective. I enjoy the one-on-one discussions with the people in my district.”

“The biennial budget was recently passed and our fall legislative session is gearing up,” Czaja said. “We welcome input from our constituents in order to get accurate feedback and meet the needs of our region while developing priorities for the next couple months.”
